

Patio Doors

Patio doors are back in fashion as they are easy to operate, don't blow about in the wind, can span large widths and give you a large glass area; they can be specified in PVCu or Aluminium.

PVCu doors are available in two, three and four pane configurations; we also offer a low threshold option for easy access.

Our aluminium patio doors are available with all the options above and in any RAL colour. We also offer a double track system with three panes that can span over 6 meters, where all panels slide back over one, this is a great alternative to bi-folds as they are easy to operate, give maximum glass area and don't flap in the wind.

French Doors

French doors can be specified either as a pair of doors, doors with side screens or even with openers in the side screens. Bear in mind that the maximum door width is around 1800mm or 2000mm at a push with extra hinges, which is the reason that customers opt for side screens. French doors can be fitted with restrictors to hold them open at 90 degrees, or aperture permitting, you can fold them back and fit cabin hooks to hold them in position.
